Should my papefollow

How should I format figures in my paper? Insert 3 single blank line spaces between a figure and the text of your paper. There must be one single blank line space between the figure and the caption. Captions should be single spaced, left justified centered. Be consistent in formatting. The figure caption must appeal elow the figure. Figure captions should end with a period. Use the same size font as in the body of your paper. If your figure is too large to place on your page vertically, you may place it horizontally on the page. However, your page marginplacement and page number placement to the rest of your paper. If your figure is on the page with no text from the body of your pap it must be centered the page. Depending on size, which lies figures may appear on the same page as long as they are separated by 3 blank line spatigate in which will be placed side by side.

- f How should I format my Reference Section? There are online software products available for this purpose. A brief google search will result in many options. Also, the USA Library recommends Mewholeheis free of charge. You may check with your department for suggestionsell.
- f How should I format my Biographical Sketch? here are two acceptable formats, please consult the Thesis/Dissertation Guide
- f Where can I find a sample thesiand more information? You can find a sample thesis addetailed Thesis/Dissertation Guiden our webpage
- f If I am having problems with my paper, are there resources for me on campus?USAs,has a Writing Center The EnglishLanguage Center also available and the SALibrary is an excellent resource.
- f Before I turn my Thesis or Dissertation in to the Graduate School, what should I do as a final check before submitting? Pleaseconsult the most commonly encountered errors docum to the fore submitting your paper. This can drastically cut down on needledits to your paper and shorten the approval process significantly.